DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: The terminology "unattachable area" lacks antecedent basis in the terminology of the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1, 3, 4, 8, 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification, as originally filed, fails to provide an adequate written description of the structure that is encompassed by the adjective "unattachable" in the terminology "unattachable area". The specification fails to set forth what renders certain areas of the "thin flexible material" incapable of being attached to a package. This is written description deficiency rejection as well as a new matter rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1, 3, 5, 6, 8, 10 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 2,807,265 to Olivia et al.

6. Claims 1, 3, 4, 8, 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,264,366 to Custer. See Fig. 13.

7. Claims 1, 3, 8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,960,021 to Schneider et al. See Fig. 15.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 1, 3-8 and 10-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 4,691,373 to Ausnit and U.S. Patent No. 3,633,642 to Siegel.

Ausnit discloses the claimed invention (see Fig. 11) except that Ausnit shows disengaging the closure profiles using flanges instead of a zipper handle. Siegel shows that disengaging closure profiles using a zipper handle is an equivalent structure known in the art. Therefore, because these two, closure profile disengaging means were art-recognized equivalents at the time the invention was made, one of ordinary skill in the art would have found it obvious to provide the closure profiles of Ausnit with the zipper handle of Siegel in order to facilitate disengaging the closure profiles.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 3-8 and 10-12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

11. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

12. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
